To effectively manage and report on structured product investments, insurance companies must adhere to stringent regulatory standards and internal guidelines. Here's a detailed breakdown of the approach:

Management

1. Risk Assessment and Due Diligence:

- Insurance companies must thoroughly assess the risks associated with structured products, including market, credit, and liquidity risks.
- A comprehensive due diligence process is necessary to understand all the components of the structured product, such as underlying assets and derivative components.

2. Qualified Personnel:

- Companies must ensure that personnel managing structured products are well-qualified and have the requisite knowledge and experience.
- Staff should be familiar with the specific complexities of structured products to manage
